Dear Mr. Perko:

I have recently received the enclosed correspondence regarding a matter involving your agency and, because of the urgent nature of this request, would appreciate your earliest consideration. Please give this letter every appropriate consideration in accordance with all rules, regulations, and laws applicable to your agency.

I would appreciate it if you would send your response to me at my Northern Virginia office, addressed to the attention of my caseworker, Sara D. Brown, at 7309 Arlington Boulevard, Suite 316, Falls Church, VA 22042. She may also be reached by phone at (703) 573-7097, by fax at (703) 573-7098, or by e-mail at Sara_Brown@webb.senate.gov.

Thank you for your special handling of this request.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Jim Webb
United States Senator

Dear Senator Webb,

I need your assistance in getting the FCC to correct their short shrifted Public Notice for the Cavalier Paetec sale. I also need your assistance with the EEOC and their current overwhelmingly negligent refusal to assist my pursuit of legitimate ADA violations against Cavalier Telephone, LLC.

Due to the way the FCC has handled this Public Notice there were only 2 business days left for Public Comment, and will close this Thursday October 14, 2010.

FCC Docket # 10-192

EEOC Case # 438-2008-01993

This request IS EXTREMELY TIME SENSITIVE.

Senator Webb's "Information/Privacy Release" enclosed.

Respectfully submitted,

T. Clifford Hancuff

Information/Privacy Release

The Privacy Act of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect you from any unauthorized use and exchange of personal information by federal agencies. Any information that a federal agency has on file regarding your dealings with the United States government may not, with a few exceptions, be given to another agency or Member of Congress without your written permission. Family members, friends, or other interested parties generally may not authorize on your behalf the release of information covered by the Privacy Act.

Please describe the situation for which you are requesting assistance:

I need Senator Webb's assistance in getting the FCC to correct their short shrifted Public Notice for the Cavalier Paster sale. I also need his assistance with the EEOC and their current rejection of what I believe to be a negligent refusal to assist my pursuit of legitimate claims against Cavalier Telephone, LLC. Due to the way the FCC has handled this Public Notice there were only 2 business days left for Public Comment, which will close this Thursday October 14, 2010. This request IS EXTREMELY TIME SENSITIVE.

I hereby request the assistance of the Office of Senator Jim Webb to resolve the matter described above. I authorize Senator Webb and his staff to receive any information that they may need to provide this assistance.

The information I have provided to the Office of Senator Jim Webb is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. The assistance I have requested from Senator Webb's office is in no way an attempt to evade or violate any federal, state, or local law.

While I am happy to work on your behalf, as a matter of Congressional courtesy, my general policy is to avoid working on constituent cases currently being handled by other Senators or House members from Virginia. Having multiple offices working on the same matter may cause delays in the resolution of your case, thus I encourage you to continue working with that member.
